

Terms of Participation

1. Obligation to Participate

- 1.1. All modules of the JUICE program, including online seminars, workshops and coaching sessions, are mandatory.
- 1.2. Participants must ensure their availability on the dates and times outlined in the current program schedule prior to application. This includes consultation with supervisors regarding time scheduling to assure participation. The program schedule is available on the intranet site of the JUICE program (go.fzj.de/juice).
- 1.3. In case participants fail to attend, Innovation & Strategy department (UE-I) reserves the right to charge the participant's institute for the participation fees and/or exclude participants from receiving the program certificate.
- 1.4. Participants who are unable to participate in a course must inform the course organizer as soon as possible.

2. Confidentiality

- 2.1. People involved in the JUICE program (participants, trainers/coaches, jury members) are obligated to maintain confidentiality about ideas related to business models and the utilization of knowledge and technologies expressed by participants in the context of the JUICE program unless the owner of an idea explicitly gives his or her permission.
- 2.2. The obligation to maintain confidentiality applies especially to people and organizations outside of Forschungszentrum Jülich and extends beyond the end of the JUICE program unless the owner of an idea explicitly gives his or her permission.
- 2.3. People involved in the JUICE program are not allowed to make use of ideas related to business models and the utilization of knowledge and technologies expressed by other participants unless the owner of an idea explicitly gives his or her permission.

3. Proof of Participation

- 3.1. After participation in all modules of the JUICE program, participants will receive a certificate as proof of their achievements.
- 3.2. Proof of participation for individual modules will not be issued.

4. Internal Use of Project Information

- 4.1. Relevant information about projects within the JUICE program, which are subject to services of the Innovation and Strategy department (UE-I), can be shared among members of UE-I and be used by UE-I to address feedback and service offers to participants.

5. Assignment of Available Places

- 5.1. Available places are limited and applications will be considered based on to the order they are received and the motivation expressed by the applicant.
- 5.2. In case there are no more places available, applicants will be put on a waiting list.
- 5.3. Applicants are obligated to communicate the cancellation of their application as soon as possible to the program coordinator so that applicants on the waiting list can be considered.

6. Use of images, video recordings and participant information

- 6.1. Throughout the JUICE program, photos and video recordings, including voice recording, might be taken for the purpose of internal communication. By agreeing to the terms of participation, participants give their consent to the creation and use of such materials.
- 6.2. By agreeing to the terms of participation, participants give their consent to the use of information related to their person and the projects they worked on for the purpose of internal communication, as long as clause 2 is not affected.
- 6.3. Images, video material, voice recordings and other information related to participants may be solely used for internal communication, including intranet news and articles in internal magazines, flyers and other advertisement for the JUICE program, internal reports etc.
- 6.4. In case participants do not want to give their consent to the creation and/or use of photos, video recordings or other participant information, they must inform the program coordinator in advance.
