1. Processing purposes and legal basis

Your personal data will be processed in accordance with the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG-neu) and other relevant data protection regulations. The processing and use of individual data is required for the following purposes:

- Event management of the JuDocs Ceremony and communication with the participants
- Preparation and execution of the digital event
- Follow-up of the event
- Reporting in anonymized form

The legal basis for this processing is Art. 6 I lit. f DS-GVO. Processing operations are based on this legal basis if the processing is necessary to safeguard a legitimate interest of our company, provided that your interests, fundamental rights and freedoms do not prevail. If the processing of personal data is necessary for the performance of a contract or a pre-contractual measure, then Art. 6 I lit. b DSGVO is the legal basis. Art. 6 (1) lit. a serves as the legal basis after voluntary registration.

Our contract documents, forms, declarations of consent and other information made available to you (e.g. on the website) provide you with further details and additions for processing purposes.

We conscientiously protect your data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access, unauthorised disclosure, falsification or destruction. Within our company, your data is stored on password-protected servers to which only a limited group of people has access. By registering for the Service, you accept the Terms of Use and Privacy Policy.

2. Categories of personal data processed by

The following data is processed:

- Personal Data: Name, First Name, Status, Gender, Nationality, Address.
- Contact Data: Email-Address, Institute.

3. Who receives the data?

We pass on your personal data within our company to the divisions, who require this data to fulfil contractual and legal obligations or to implement our legitimate interests. We neither sell or trade your personal data nor do we transfer them to third parties. In your case only members of the career Center can access your data.

4. Does a transfer of your data to a third country or to an international organisation take place?

No data processing takes place outside the EU or the EEA.

5. How long do we store your data?

Your data will be deleted once the event, you registered for, took place.

In addition, we are subject to various storage and documentation obligations, which result from the German Commercial Code (HGB) and the German Fiscal Code (AO), among others. The periods specified there for storage and documentation are up to ten years beyond the end of an activity at the research center or the pre-contractual legal relationship.

If catering is provided, all tax documents are subject to the legal retention periods.

6. To what extent is there automated decision-making in individual cases (including profiling)?

As a responsible company, we refrain from an automated decision-making procedure or profiling in accordance with Article 22 GDPR.

7. Your Privacy Rights

You have the right of access pursuant to Art. 15 GDPR, the right of rectification pursuant to Art. 16 GDPR, the right of deletion pursuant to Art. 17 GDPR, the right of restriction of processing pursuant to Art. 18 GDPR and the right of data transfer pursuant to Art. 20 GDPR. In addition, there is a right of appeal to a data protection supervisory authority (Art. 77 GDPR).

8. Your right to appeal to the competent supervisory authority

In addition, you have the right to appeal to the data protection supervisory authority (Art. 77 GDPR). The supervisory authority responsible for us is:
